25X1C 1. Between May 1953, Waellisch Hof (O 49/X 38) was guarded by sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets, the duty officer was a senior lieutenant and also wore red-bordered black epaulets. A group of 26 soldiers, wearing black-bordered blue and red-bordered black epaulets and carrying books, under the command of a sergeant wearing red-bordered black epaulets with motor transport insignia, marched into the installation. About 76 motor vehicles, of which 46 were counted, were parked in the specially fenced-in area referred to as park konservatii. Most of the vehicles were on blocks and the larger portion had intensive traffic in the installation. 25X1C

25X1C a driver 25X1C wearing red-bordered black epaulets, were parked outside the park konservatii. Three majors wearing red-bordered black epaulets and a senior lieutenant wearing black-bordered blue epaulets were observed in the vicinity of Waellisch Hof. 1

25X1 2. No patrols or sentries were observed within the fence around Liechtenstein (O 49/X 37) Castle. 25X1C About 14 motor vehicles were parked in the garages and no weapons or other equipment could be observed which would indicate the type of troops 25X1 stationed there. 2
